MUTUAL INSURANCE.—On Dwelling

Houses, Furniture, and effects returned to the HOME OWNERS' MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY, Office No. 49 Wall-st., for securing the insurance of Dwelling Houses and Furniture from

of Risks and Mercantiles.

It is well known that, to meet all the losses incurred in the course of business, are the result of the burning of valuable

Buildings and costly goods.

This increases the expense of insurance to the household, and may possibly deprive him of the very security for which he holds.

The premium or premium form a fund, which, after paying expenses and losses, is represented by scrip, and is issued to the assured in proportion to the amount of their insurance.

The Company is prepared to insure against loss or damage to Dwelling Houses occupied in whole or in part, as such, Household Furniture and all Household Property, including kettles in Dwelling houses. Every person insuring with this Company is entitled to one vote for each sum insured.

DIRECTORS.
